

GETS NINE MONTHS
FOR BEATING WIFEJohn Trilling Draws Long
Sentence in Judge Kimball's Court for Assault.

Charged with assault on his wife on three different counts, John Trilling, thirty-five years old, a machinist, of 422 K street, was sent to jail by Judge Kimball this morning, where he will spend the next nine months.

The case is rather unusual. Trilling was arrested on February 4 for assaulting his wife, and was allowed to go on his personal bond. On July 5, he was again brought before the court on a similar charge, and Judge Kimball continued to be lenient, allowing him his freedom on a suspended sentence. Last night, Trilling was arrested for a brutal assault on his wife, Pauline, and, after

TRAFFIC RULE MADE
ON NEW YORK AVENUEEast-Bound Teams Must Take South Side of Street.
Only.

The Commissioners have ordered that New York avenue, from Ninth to Fifteenth street, be considered as one thoroughfare.

Vehicles going eastward will be permitted to drive only on the south, while those going west will drive on the north side of the street. Similar rules apply to Pennsylvania avenue from Ninth to Fifteenth streets.

Major Sylvester has been authorized to increase the detail of policemen on these streets for the purpose of enforcing the regulation.

hearing the evidence this morning, Judge Kimball called for all the papers and imposed a nine months' sentence. The police say that Trilling has a faculty of going out on a spree, and following such occasions he becomes suspicious of his wife and chastises her in a way the police say is unusually brutal.

PERMIT FOR GARAGE
BEING PROTESTEDProtestants Claim That All Applications for the Permit Were Not Legal.

Protest against the establishment of a garage at 821 L street northwest was made before the Commissioners today at the first hearing held in the board room of the new District Building. The claim was made by S. Percy McGhee, attorney for the protestants, that all the signatures to the application for a permit for the garage were not legal, as the names of certain residents of the neighborhood were signed by their attorneys or other representatives.

S. S. Grogan, attorney for H. E. Duckstein, manager of the garage company, assured the Commissioners that, if the permit is granted, the establishment will be conducted within the regulations governing the same. Commissioner West, at the conclusion of the hearing said that the only thing to be determined was whether the signatures of the surrounding residents are in accordance with the law and that, if such is the case, the permit will be granted.

tion in New York Buried Here.

Funeral services over the remains of William S. St. Clair, the actor, who died as the result of an operation in New York, were held today at 2 o'clock in the Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. St. Clair was born in Washington fifty years ago. His father was an employee of one of the government departments. He was regarded as a clever actor, and his first appearance on the stage was with Lotta in London. Since that time he has successfully played in "Master and Man," "A Fair Rebel," "Faust," "The Christian," and "As in a Looking Glass."

His body was brought from New York by Henry Buckler. Mr. St. Clair was a member of the Actors' Society, the Lambs Club, and the Green Room Club, all of New York city.

E. Z. TABLETS are not a patent medicine. Ask your doctor if he doesn't approve of this formula: Aloin, 1/4 gr.; Bellad. Extract, 1-16 gr.; Strych. Sulph., 1-120 gr.; Ipecac, 1-16 gr.; Cascara, 1/4 gr. All our pills come from inactivity of the bowels these days. E. Z. TABLETS will save you from losing time many a day. In olden times they used castor oil and epsom salts, and they made you more constipated than you were; in other words, the cure was worse than the disease. It is different with E. Z. TABLETS. They stimulate the whole system, no gripping, no irritation. Take one E. Z. TABLET at bedtime. No secret formula.
